

A QUIET CHOICE

Emma & Daniel

Before Emma knew Daniel as the man waiting at the end of an aisle, he was the stranger who gave up the last dry seat in a crowded coffee shop.

She remembers the rain. He remembers her laugh. Neither remembers what they ordered.

Five years later, they have learned that love is rarely one grand moment. It is a thousand quiet choices: another cup poured, another late train waited for, another ordinary Tuesday made worth remembering.

And today, surrounded by everyone who watched those choices become a life, they make one more - to keep choosing each other.

SUGGESTED SCENE RHYTHM

00:00 Venue and weather details

00:18 Preparation and personal objects

00:48 First look or aisle reveal

01:05 Hands, guests and closing wide shot

Names and story details are invented for this portfolio sample.